

For immediate release
15 November 2007

PRESS RELEASE

Essex Tourism Association Ltd

www.hidden-treasures.co.uk

Essex Tourism Association says “Goodbye” to its long-standing Chairman – but we can’t get rid of him that easily!

After 5 years at the helm of Essex Tourism Association, its Chairman, Dominic Petre from Ingatestone Hall, is standing down. Dominic has headed the Association with enthusiasm and dedication, and after a vote at the recent AGM is now set to become Vice Chairman again!

Dominic has continued to provide advice and support to the Membership and Committee, and his dedication has not gone unnoticed. He has helped to take the business forward, and the Association is very pleased that he will be remaining on the Committee for the foreseeable future. The role will be passed on to Mark Reed, Administrator at Brentwood Theatre.

Dominic said “Chairman of ETA has been very much a figurehead role, and I must pay tribute to all the Committee who have pulled hard during these rather strange times, but most of my thanks must go to our Operations Manager, Carol Jolly, who has worked unstintingly to bring the ETA to where it is now. I have enjoyed my time as Chairman, but am very happy to pass on the torch to Mark, a very safe and capable pair of hands. I look forward to working with him to continue the development of Tourism in Essex, and the ETA in particular”.

For further information on the Association and benefits of Membership, please call Carol Jolly on 01206 562878, email: carol@hidden-treasures.co.uk or visit: www.hidden-treasures.co.uk

Ends

Notes: Essex Tourism Association is a membership based company representing visitor attractions, accommodation providers and related businesses throughout Essex. It has been acting as a soft lobbyist, and promoting its Members and the County for the past 14 years. Together with the support of the local Councils, it has become a well-known influential company, which is able to provide promotional, networking and training opportunities for its hundreds of Members.